“Forever Young - A Life, a Story, a Memory” Dedication Sat., April 7th

The loss of a child is something every parent dreads. No matter the age or circumstance it leaves an emotional hole that some never get past. The family and friends of Makensie Hay-Youngman understand this emotional hole and the devastation it can inflict on those who are left behind. Makensie suffered for years with depression and her family worked very hard to get her the help she needed. While treatment for cancer and other diseases are readily available, treatment for depression, though available, can be illusive.

To help channel their pain at the loss of someone so young, her family and friends have worked for several months with local artist Ken Swinson to create a memorial to her life. Through this they hope to also draw awareness to the silent disease of depression in young people and the tragedy that can be brought to families. Swinson has created four panels that represent the four seasons in the Folk Art Style incorporating horses, angels, and quilts. Friends and family members of Makensie have had the chance to express their love for her by painting on sections of each of the panels.

This project was made possible by donations received in Makensie's honor after her passing in March of 2011. Her family chose to use the funds as a visible memorial to her and to the healing process they continue to go through. The mural will be a permanent display in the Children's Wing of the Bracken County Public Library. Swinson has made the panels so they can be easily interchangeable to place the current season closest to the children's reading area. Makensie's mother, Sharon King Hay, feels that children will recognize the fun in the mural, while adults will recognize the art value. Other individual prints will also be added to the other walls in the Children's Wing in memory of other children. Track lighting has been added to help showcase the murals. The official unveiling will be held next Saturday, April 7th, from 2-4 p.m. at the Bracken County Public Library. Everyone is invited to join the family for the memorial dedication of "Forever Young - A Life, a Story, a Memory" to Makensie Hay-Youngman.

Natalie Bell, a Taylor Elementary School 5th grader was the winner of the 2011-2012 Grandparent of the Year essay contest sponsored by the AARP Kentucky and the Kentucky Retired Teachers' Association. Natalie is among thousands of 5th graders who participated in the 11th annual essay competition. Natalie wrote about her grandma Susie Hargett. (See page 6.) Students submitted essays answering why "My grandparent should be the AARP Kentucky Grandparent of the Year" to their 5th grade teachers who selected the school winner. Each school winner received a recognition certificate. As county winner, Natalie also received a $25 award from the Bracken County Retired Teachers. Katie Gilbert was the Augusta Independent School winner, writing about her grandmother, Sherry Cucchiara.

The essay competition is a unique way to recognize the significant contributions that older Kentuckians make toward shaping the lives and values of youth across our state. Across the United States an increasing number of adults 50 and over are the primary caregivers to minor children. The 2010 Census data showed nearly 87,000 of these children live in homes where the grandparent is responsible for them.

Congratulations to Natalie and Grandma Susie and Katie and grandmother Sherry.

Bracken County Emergency Management

If someone you know is elderly or dependent on life-sustaining or health-related equipment such as a ventilator, respirator or oxygen concentrator, you should make plans now to ensure their needs are met during severe weather and possible power outages.

1. Help them stock a home disaster kit including a flashlight and extra batteries, a battery-operated radio, bottled water, non-perishable foods, medicines, and extra blankets or sleeping bags, cell phones are very important after severe weather.
2. Check on them after a storm or power outage. Register them, as a special needs customer with their utility so they will become a priority customer. Notify others who could provide help such as neighbors, relatives, nearby friends and local emergency responders such as the fire department.
3. Have a list of emergency numbers readily available.
4. Have a standby generator or an alternative source of power available. Be aware of the safety rules for its use.

JOHN WESLEY BRATTON

BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE

TO HIS MEMORY

By Dr. J. W. Daily

1470 Washington St.

Boston

May 1, 1903

Dear Editor --- I have just learned through my esteemed and brilliant correspondent, Miss Mae Manning, that my dear brother-in-law, John Wesley Bratton, has passed away. He married my oldest sister in April 1861; he was one of the kindest and most noble men I ever knew; he had a very strong mathematical mind; was unusually bright in all of his studies in school, and if he ever had a fault known to me it was the crime, if a crime, of being too modest and unassuming. He and his brother James were very much alike; both were men of large mental caliber, and were equally kind, generous, good and unpretending.

It was in the fall of 1862, and frosty, when Aaron Bratton was taken by the Rebels to Libby prison; he was clad in linen; had no time to change, and it was obvious to all that he was suffering with cold. John Wesley, with trembling lips, asked me to go with him across the lines into the Rebel camps in search of his brother. I went without a word of protest; we followed the army for days, and even in that rich Blue Grass country it was almost impossible for us to get a bite of food, as the army had devoured everything. As they were on the march and were 30 miles ahead of us, at the start, our troubles can be easily imagined.

After overtaking the army, it seemed impossible to find the captain, but after days of suffering with hunger and fatigue, our poor horses being almost exhausted, too, we heard a loud familiar call from the midst of some famishing prisoners, and as the words were "John Wesley" they appealed to each of us, our names being the same.

In a moment the two brothers were face to face, and with streaming eyes, were clasping each other hands; their tongues were stilled with emotion, however, and their hearts alone could speak. We tried for hours to get the captain released, but utterly failed.

Two Minutes WITH THE BIBLE

by Cornelius R. Stam, Founder

COMFORT ONE ANOTHER by Cornelius R. Stam

Increasing world tension and the present trend of events in the Middle East have always filled many with fear, and there are even sincere believers in Christ who fear that perhaps the "Great Tribulation" of prophecy, with all its horrors, is at hand.

It is true indeed that even Paul's epistles warn this world of the judgment to come. "...The Day of the Lord", he says, "so cometh as a thief in the night".

"For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape" (I Thess. 5:2,3).

But before this time comes, the Lord will recall His ambassadors, as the apostle tells us in the following passage:

"For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

"Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

"Wherefore comfort one another with these words" (I Thess. 4:16-18).

This is the event with which "the dispensation of the grace of God" will be brought to a close. Then will follow "the day of His wrath", but even as Paul goes on to tell about this in the passage which follows, he reassures the members of Christ's Body that they will not be included amongst those to whom the Lord will come as "a thief in the night".

"But ye brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light...God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us...Wherefore comfort yourselves together..." (I Thess. 5:4-11).

GREETINGS FROM ST. JAMES by Caroline Jefferson

This Friday, March 30 is the last opportunity to participate in the 7 p.m. Friday Mass for this Lenten Season. For those interested in receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Fr. Ed will be available immediately after Mass at approximately 7:30 p.m. During this time, Ms. Debbie will be leading the faithful in the Stations of the Cross.

The 5th & 6th grade 4-H Club of St. Augustine are collecting toiletries, such as tooth paste, tooth brushes, deodorant, hair brushes, combs, etc. to help the children of West Liberty, Ky. Items need to be dropped off at the school before March 29. While this is a last minute entry here, I know the prompt and generous nature of Bracken County and if there is any way possible, our citizens will respond!

Sunday is Palm Sunday, beginning the holiest week of the year. Fr. Ed urges everyone to gather to celebrate each of the days which commemorate the final steps in the journey of Jesus to the Cross and ultimately, to the Resurrection. The graces that are made available during these liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil are powerful, unique and life-giving. It all begins next weekend with Palm Sunday!

PRESBYTERIAN POTPOURRI by Les Grooms, pastor Augusta Presbyterian

It was good to be back in the pulpit at Augusta after being absent for a week while visiting the Catlettsburg Presbyterian Church. I understand that Marvin Sullivan did a great job filling in for me.

We continued this past Wednesday with the Lenten service by worshipping at the Christian Church. This next Wednesday (Mar. 28) we will worship in the St. Augustine Church and end up the following week in the Presbyterian Church. This has been a wonderful time worshipping with fellow Christians in the churches in Augusta.

Saturday night we attended the prayer vigil at the Germantown school. There were about 75 present. There was some great music. It started with Susie Hargett singing "It Is Well With My Soul" (which is a favorite of mine) and from then, it just continued with great music as well as scripture reading and prayers.

Sunday morning we had 60 in attendance for worship. John Bush was the liturgist. Susie Hargett led the singing. Shelby England had children's church.

In Sunday School Class, we started the study of 2nd Corinthians. Paul certainly loved the church at Corinth but he sure had some problems with them.

Earl Bush is recovering nicely from his broken leg and his surgery. Deanya Woodruff is home from the hospital and she has to maintain her bed rest for a while. Marie England has been under the weather and is recovering at home.

COUNTRYSIDE

Patty Johnson opened her lovely home to the ladies of Countryside for our March 9th meeting. We started our evening with an inspirational read by Kathy Bay, followed by Sec./Treas. reports by Patty. Club members purchased donations for the Back Pack Program and additional items, which Patty will drop off for us.

Reminders were given about International Night - Apr. 19 and Annual Meeting - June 28. The Homemaker rummage sale is scheduled for May 5. Items may be dropped off on May 3 & 4. Workers are needed for the sale.

Countryside will provide treats for the residents of Bracken Center for Easter. Karen Rumford, Patty Johnson, Mary Ellen Stegemann, Faye Chinn, Janet Meyer volunteered to drop off items on Good Friday. A monetary donation was given to Mrs. Sticklen's Adopt-A-Class for an Easter pizza party.

Following our meeting games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by our hostess and her daughter, Lauren Elliott. Members present, but not previously mentioned, were Alice Cummins, Mary Ann Cummins, Diana Sharp, Janice Garrison, Janet Garrison, Phyllis Thornbury. We missed LuAnn Doyle, Wendy Manzo, and Mary Lou Hickey.

Next meeting will be at the home of Janet Garrison on Apr. 13.

CONCORD UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The Concord United Methodist Women met on Mon., Mar. 19 at the church for the monthly meeting. Pres. Melinda Kurtz opened the meeting with everyone repeating our purpose together. Then we had joys & concerns. Sarah Carl had our prayer calendar for the month. Her scripture was from Heb. 3-1-6. Norma Sizemore had our response moments - scripture Matt 25-40. Melinda had the prayer.

Program leader was Ashley Huesing. She gave a wonderful program on "How To Be A Better Christian". She had on her focus table a path made out of shells with cross, Bible, and things that lead you to think of Christ. Scripture readers were Margie Mains, Lynda Huesing, Melinda Kurtz from 2 Cor. 5-21, Phil. 4-6-7, John 3-16. How important is your witness in your community? Family - home - church - circle of friends? Does your witness show others you are a Christian? She had 3 short movies. They were great! Many things can get in our path to keep us from being what God wants us to be. We each received a prayer rack and plan to be a better witness for God. Norma dismissed with prayer.

After the business meeting we had refreshments by Nauva Harding. Those present, not previously mentioned, were: Penny Burton, Margarette Carl, Pastor Yancy, Pam Tull. Next meeting will be Lynda Huesing as leader and Ashley Huesing as hostess.

Eye to Eye

with David Blandford, M.D.

WORKING TO PRESERVE EYESIGHT

According to the Federal Occupational Health Agency, approximately 1,000 eye injuries occur in American workplaces each day. And a very unfortunate statistic is that three out of five of these injuries involve employees who are either not wearing eye protection or are wearing eye protection that is ill-suited for the task at hand. It is estimated that more than nine out of ten eye injuries in the workplace could be prevented with the use of proper safety eyewear. It is critical to note that improper eyewear may actually have the potential to do more harm than good. Such is the case when shattered lens fragments enter the eyes of those not wearing recommended safety eyewear with shatter-proof lenses.

Today's column has been brought to you as a public service. KENTUCKY EYE

Tonya Berry, assistant manager of Snappy Tomato Pizza and employee of Taylor Elementary, asked Princip Hopper if Taylor Elementary students and staff would want to team up with Snappy Tomato Pizza to collect items for victims of the tornado that hit Peach Grove on Friday, March 2. Principal Hopper agreed and the amount of food and personal hygiene items that were donated by the Taylor Elementary School was overwhelming! Tonya Berry and Bridgett Yelton, a third grade teacher at Taylor Elementary have been delivering the donated items to the tornado victims at Peach Grove. So nice to see our community and students work together to help others in need!

My Grandma Susie

What do you see special in grandparents? I see a lot of special things in my grandma, Susie Hargett. Which is why she should win AARP Grandparent of the Year. She is very creative, caring, and inspirational. I want to share with you some reasons why she's these things.

My grandma Susie is very creative. She always thinks of games to play. One of our favorite games she made up is drawing words or pictures on our backs. We try to guess what it is or what it says. We usually play this game when I spend the night at her house. On holidays, she always thinks of ways to make it fun. We play a game that we say what we're thankful for on Thanksgiving. On Christmas, we play charades and she thinks of ways to open presents so there's no bedlam.

Another reason my grandma should win this award is because she's caring. She cooks for shut-ins that have lost their loved ones and they can't cook for themselves. On Wednesdays, she always takes them a meal. When it comes to the holidays my grandma is just so busy because she cooks the family meal and she cooks for her church. She cooks for the church on special occasions or holidays. Every Thanksgiving she cooks a community meal at the church where everybody can come.

My grandma is very inspirational. She inspires me to be just like her when I get older. My grandma Susie always cares for other people. She puts other people first and not her. When I get older I want to go to church every Sunday like she does. I also want to cook meals for other people like she does.

In conclusion, I hope I have proven to you my grandma Susie Hargett should win AARP Grandparent of the Year. She is creative, caring, and very inspirational. Please consider her for this award.

The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all or any part of the purchase price or paying said bond before maturity by paying the balance of the principal together with all accrued interest thereon. If the total purchase price is not paid in cash, the required deposit shall be applied to any expenses incurred by a default of the purchaser. Provided, however, in the event a party of this action is the successful bidder at the sale of the property by the Master Commissioner, then the said party, upon payment of the court costs and sale expenses and any liens or judgments that have been given priority herein over the lien and judgment of said successful bidder/party, shall have its bid credited against its judgment herein.

If the purchaser(s) fails to comply with the terms of the sale then, in such event, the Master Commissioner shall immediately resell the property upon the same terms and conditions as set forth herein, excepting only any necessary changes in the time and date of sale. Possession of the property herein sold shall be given to the purchaser after payment in full of the purchase price and confirmation of the sale by the Bracken Circuit Court. Pursuant to the Judgment herein, the purchaser shall be required to assume and pay all ad valorem property taxes assessed against the property for 2012 and all subsequent years thereafter. The title interest of the parties to the lawsuit will be conveyed without warranty by the Master Commissioner to the purchaser and the purchaser shall receive a deed to property upon payment of the purchase price in full (and costs of sale, if applicable) and after confirmation of the sale by Bracken Circuit Court, subject to any equity of redemption if the property does not sell for two-thirds of its appraised value.

Howdy Folks! Such a beautiful Monday morning and the trip down the AA Highway Sunday evening was most enjoyable, even boarding on perfection had our destination not been a hospital! The redbuds are simply gorgeous this year with so many different shades of pink! It has been six weeks since Larry was admitted to St. Elizabeth's in Edgewood, but hopefully we've got a lot more trips behind us than ahead! Larry is improving and the process has begun to get Home Health Care established so that his needs can be met at home. Just being in familiar surroundings will help to speed the healing process. As always, we appreciate the prayers and well wishes and know that we in turn pray for all of you!

Roll-off dumpsters continue to be in the county with one located at Dana's Place in Berlin and the other located on Route 8, east of Augusta. This dumpster is on the right side of the road, just east of the Augusta Farm Supply. While we have not been able to get a tally on the amount of grant money spent or the number of tons disposed, we do know that tires continue to be thrown into the dumpsters and we ask that, according to the rules and regulations as set forth by the Mason County Landfill, no tires be disposed in the roll-offs. Mrs. Donna Rath works hard to obtain the grant which funds the use of these roll-offs, and everyone else needs to work equally hard at observing the terms of the agreement with the Mason County Landfill.

Of course, we want everyone to make use of these dumpsters, but we also urge you to explore the possibilities of recycling or reusing the items you have before actually disposing of them. Perhaps the old lamp just needs new wiring or the chair needs a new brace. These items can be donated to not-for-profit organizations and items such as good used magazines can be donated to hospitals, or VA centers. If the magazines are beyond use, they can be put into any one of the nine recycling trailers in the county.

Folks around the globe will be celebrating Earth Day on April 22 and citizens of all countries are urged to adopt practices that will help sustain the environment and ultimately the human race. One suggestion is to cut down on the amount of paper used by stopping unwanted junk mail that is delivered to your home. Every day lots of families receive advertisements and other unsolicited mail. These mailings can be stopped and the waste of paper reduced by writing to Direct Marketing Association Mail Preference Service, P.O. Box 9008, Farmingdale, NY, 11735-9008, and requesting that they take your name off their distribution list. This one simple step if taken by many people will have a huge impact on the number of trees cut down each year.

Not only is paper wasted each year, Americans also throw away 50 billion food and drink cans and 27 billion glass bottles and jars! 85% of trash is sent to a dump or landfill where it can take 100 to 400 years to decompose for most materials, but glass has been found in perfect condition after 4000 years! While sending items to landfills gets them out of sight, the amount of landfills are increasing, and guess what -- God gave us just one earth! Let's take steps to celebrated Earth Day on April 22 by RECYCLING, REUSING and REDUCING to keep God's earth clean, green and beautiful! Be seen you -- Bin & Bug.

Bracken County Fiscal Court

A regular meeting of the Bracken County Fiscal Court was held Wednesday, February 22, 2012, for the purpose of transacting any business properly presented by the established agenda. Presiding: Earl Bush, County Judge Executive. Present: Carl Allen, Clark Hennessey, David Kelsch, David Hughes, Scotty Lippert, John Corlis, Doug Smith, and Dennis Jefferson.

Let the Record reflect that the Court members received a copy of the vendor claims to be paid for all funds.

Upon motion of John Corlis seconded by Doug Smith the minutes meeting February 8, 2011 be accepted/approved. Voting being unanimous.

Floor open to the public to discuss anything other than agenda items - Judge Bush opened the floor to public comments regarding any concerns or issues of others that are not related to any agenda item. He advised that there would be order held in the court. This time would be for public to voice concerns, but no personal attacks would be allowed.

*No public comment.

Woodland Acres - Judge Bush advised that this issue is now between property owners for resolution. This item is to be removed from the agenda as old business. It will be brought before fiscal court once resolution is made between property owners.

Space Utilization-Courthouse (once Judicial Center is complete) - Tabled.

Bladeston Kentucky Utilities Street Light at 4-Way Stop - Upon motion of Clark Hennessey, seconded by Scotty Lippert that the county be responsible for the street light at the 4-Way Stop in Bladeston (intersection of Hwy 1159/ Augusta-Berlin Road/ Perkins Ridge). Judge Bush will contact KY Utilities regarding a meter being placed for that utility pole. Vote being unanimous.

Rural Secondary Road Program Recommended Projects FY 2012-13 - See below the Projects recommended for the Rural Secondary Program FY 2012-2013. Upon motion of David Kelsch, seconded by Scotty Lippert that a change be recommended. The court asks that #3 KY 875 estimating $175,995 be moved to the bottom of the list and 4-7 move up. This will allow #7 KY 2370 From Cigar Lane to KY 435 be in the project recommendations. This will make the flex funds estimated at $150,000 instead of the original $160,140. The Court chooses to keep the result of estimated Flex Funds to use for county road projects. Vote being unanimous.

Bracken County EMS Board (Appointment) - Upon motion of Scotty Lippert and seconded by Clark Hennessey that Christy Jones be reappointed to the Bracken County EMS Board with a term being (2/1/2012-2/1/2014). Vote being unanimous.

Bracken County Ethics Board (Appointment) - Upon motion of David Kelsch, seconded by Doug Smith that Lisa Ruf be reappointed to the Bracken County Ethics Board with a term being (2/1/2012-2/1/2016). Vote being unanimous.

City Of Brooksville-Bracken County Fiscal Court: Joint Project Sidewalks and Courthouse Retaining Wall - Judge Bush advised that he had met with Mayor Hester and the City Maintenance Supervisor. The project for the new sidewalks coming from the Judicial Center around the courthouse to meet the Veteran's Walk and the new retaining wall at the edge of the courthouse wall will be a joint project between the city and the county. The City will furnish track hoe and wiring underground. They will do approximately $50,000 in paving on the surrounding city streets. The County will furnish stone, trucks to haul dirt, and also grass seed/straw. The County will be accountable for approximately $70,000 to include the cost of concrete. This project can be done as whole or it can be performed in phases. There will be a new drainage system (behind the retaining wall) with all downspouts from the courthouse running into the system. There will be an inter local agreement between the City and the County to include the maintenance of sidewalks. This project will have to take place in spring of 2012, if approved and agreed upon.

Magistrates tabled this item until they can review all drawings and estimates.

No Action Taken Today - Tabled.

General Fund Vendor Claims - Upon motion of Doug Smith seconded by Dennis Jefferson that the following General Fund Vendor Claims be approved for payment. Vote being unanimous.

Road Fund Vendor Claims - Upon motion of Scotty Lippert seconded by David Kelsch that the following Road Fund Vendor Claims be approved for payment. Vote being unanimous. Abstain: John Corlis - due to Brooksville Farm Supply payment.

Dispatch/911 Fund Vendor Claims - Upon motion of Dennis Jefferson, seconded by John Corlis that the following Dispatch/911 Fund Vendor Claims be approved for payment. Vote being unanimous.

Germantown Recreational Park - Park Improvements - Upon motion of John Corlis, seconded by Doug Smith that the Court contribute $7,000 to the City Of Germantown for park improvements. There are Bracken County Community recreational teams for football/baseball/softball playing at that park. Discussion was held regarding a lot of the teams using the Germantown Park as opposed to using the Bracken County Schools fields and property. Vote being unanimous.

*County Attorney informed the court that part of HB463 provided that a defendant could settle his costs and jail bill by serving jail time. A person serving would get credit of $50.00 per day of jail service. This time served to pay of costs and/or jail bill would not having to be reimbursed by the defendant.

*Co Clerk, Rae Jean Poe, handed out the maps showing the redistricting. County Attorney, Mike Clark, advised the maps were prepared to show greater detail to the monuments used to as division lines for the eight magisterial districts. No district lines were moved or affected in any way. Frankfort wanted more detail so that people not familiar to the area could follow the district lines.

*Rob Hans, District 6 Transportation Cabinet advised that the 1159 project is in the design phase, but the

Enrollment Reminder for Direct and Counter-Cyclical Payments and Other FSA Programs

U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Farm Service Agency (FSA) State Executive Director John W. McCauley today reminded producers that the 2012 deadline to enroll in the Direct and Counter-Cyclical Payment (DCP) program is June 1.

“Tencourage all producers interested in DCP to visit the service center where their farm is administered and sign up before the busy planting season gets underway,” said McCauley. “Enrollments cannot be accepted after the deadline, so enrolling early may help producers avoid missing the deadline during one of the most demanding times of the year.”

DCP provides payments to eligible producers on farms enrolled for any of the 2008 through 2012 crop years. There are two types of DCP payments: direct payments and counter-cyclical payments. Both are calculated using the base acres and payment yields established for the farm. DCP is authorized by the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008 (2008 Farm Bill).

In addition to DCP, other FSA programs also have enrollment deadlines approaching:

- Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program: Check with the FSA service center for dates;
- GRAZE-OUT – March 31 for calendar year 2011 crops;
- Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) General Sign-up 43 – April 6;
- Average Crop Revenue Election (ACRE) – June 1;
- Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payment Program (SURE) – June 1, 2012 for crop year 2010;
- 2011 ACRE Production Evidence – July 15;
- Certification of Planted Acres – Various deadlines, but no later than July 15;
- Farm Reconstitutions (changes) – August 1, 2012 for the 2012 crop year;
- MILC – Sept. 30, 2012;
- Crop Insurance – Contact a crop insurance agent or the regional RMA office.

The Obama Administration, with Agriculture Secretary Vilsack’s leadership, has worked tirelessly to strengthen rural America, implement the Farm Bill, maintain a strong farm safety net, and create opportunities for America’s farmers and ranchers. U.S. agriculture is currently experiencing one of its most productive periods in American history thanks to the productivity, resiliency, and resourcefulness of our producers. A strong farm safety net is important to sustain the success of American agriculture. For example, USDA’s crop insurance program insures 264 million acres, 1.14 million policies, and $110 billion worth of liability on about 500,000 farms. And in response to tighter financial markets, USDA has expanded the availability of farm credit, helping struggling farmers refinance loans. In the past 3 years, USDA provided 103,000 loans to family farmers totaling $14.6 billion. Over 50 percent of the loans went to beginning and socially disadvantaged farmers and ranchers.

For more information on these and other FSA programs, contact a local FSA service center or visit the FSA website at www.fsa.usda.gov.

The property shall be sold to the highest and best bidder(s) and said purchaser shall be required to pay cash or the sum of ten percent (10%) of the bid price in cash deposit with the balance of the purchase price to be due and payable in cash or certified funds, within thirty (30) days from the date of sale. Letters
To The Editor

August 14th, 1935, President Franklin Roosevelt and Congress passed the Social Security act. Everyone got a number and all the children born after that date received a social security number. It is your identification number and stays with you the rest of your life. You are identified by that number, and if the wrong person gets that number he/she can do you and your assets a lot of damage.

On Wednesday, March 14th, 2012, my granddaughter and I put some recycled items in the bin at the Taylor Elementary School. When we opened the door some items fell out as the bin was full! Imagine our surprise when what fell out was cancelled checks from the "Bracken County Board of Education", at the time Mr. Howard Hall was superintendent. All canceled checks with employees' social security numbers printed on them. I want to know who who gave the order to put these checks in the "Recycled Bin"? All items are sorted by inmates at the Mason County Detention Center, why were the documents NOT shredded? The Sheriff was contacted and the documents were taken care of properly.

*Concerned Citizen
Naomi W. Kinney
Brooksville, KY*

Editors Note: According to Bracken County Sheriff Howard Niemeier, Bracken County Schools Superintendent Tony Johnson was notified of the questionable items in the recycling bin. He immediately had the whole bin pulled from its location and all items pertaining to the school district and its employees were removed. Johnson said that when eliminating old documents, the containers in question were mistakenly sent to the recycling bin.

Elkins to hold book signing at Parkview on Mon., April 2

Author, Anne Elkins, plans to be at the Parkview in Augusta on April 2, 2012, for a book signing of her new historical fiction, Pioneers of Freedom. It will be held at the Parkview Inn from 2pm to 4pm. Ms. Elkins is a fifth generation granddaughter of General John Payne, whose home still stands at the end of Riverside Drive. From early childhood, Ms. Elkins relates, her grandmother would tell her about the General and his family and their roots in Kentucky. When Ms. Elkins was about 12 years old, her grandmother brought her on a trip to Augusta and they saw the house where General Payne had lived and brought up his family. This instilled a tremendous interest in family history for Ms. Elkins. Many years later, in spring of 2000, Ms. Elkins and her husband made a visit to Augusta from their home near London, KY. The old home place had been ravaged by a recent flood and was deserted. The Elkins' walked all through the house taking pictures.

When they returned home, Ms. Elkins shared her adventures with the ladies she was teaching in her literacy class, and began a story of the General on her classroom computer. The ladies were fascinated and every day they wanted a new chapter. So, that is how Pioneers of Freedom came to be written.

Ms. Elkins is a retired public school music teacher who lives with her husband, George, in Aiken, SC. Their daughter, son-in-law, and three grandsons live just five minutes away. She enjoys teaching private piano lessons, reading, gardening, and spending time with family. When asked if she plans a sequel to Pioneers of Freedom, she answers: "Maybe?"

"4-0 Lady Bears off to a Hot Start"

Most people, who know softball, would consider Connor High to be a powerhouse in the 9th region, as many polls have the well established club ranked in the top two of their region, just behind Ryle. Despite being a formidable opponent, and one whom the Lady Bears have never beaten, Bracken battled from behind in the 7th to walk away with their first ever victory over the Lady Cougars on Thursday night.

The outcome seemed bleak for the Lady Bears, as they trailed Conner 4-2 going into the 7th. Conner's ace pitcher, gave free pass to three batters, Woods, Bell, and C. Jefferson. With bases loaded, two outs, and with two strikes, 8th grade shortstop, Bailey Cummins hit a shot into left field, plating Woods and Bell, knotting the game at four all. Bracken's sophomore center fielder, Jordan Wills stepped to the plate, and stroked a line shot up the middle, scoring Cassidy Jefferson from second base to bring this game to an end and into the history books for Lady Bears' softball.

Coach Persinger was excited about what his young team accomplished. "It was nice beating a team that our program hasn't beaten before and to do it that way was pretty special. The girls just didn't give up and they had several opportunities to do so. It says a lot about this team when our pitcher, Emma, didn't have her "A" game on the mound but was still able to make enough pitches and hit enough spots, our team made enough plays, and we got the big hits to pull off a win. After we loaded the bases in the 7th, I was just hoping for one big hit to extend the game, but we got two and won it. Bailey battled with 2 strikes and tied it up for us and then Jordan got her biggest hit ever as she drove in Cassidy from 2nd to win it. Hopefully we can feed off this and the confidence will continue."

The Lady Bears also beat Scott High 14-1 on Monday night, giving them a 4-0 start for the season. Coach Persinger has been pleased with his team's progress with each game. "We have several girls who are really coming around swinging the bat. We know this is a huge key to our success this year. If we can get everyone confident at the plate, it takes so much pressure off our defense and our pitching."

"We have a big game tonight with Fleming County and if we can continue playing well, we can take a lot of momentum into the Brossart Tournament this weekend and hopefully continue to improve".

GO LADY BEARS!

Final Four for The Ages: Half Kentucky and no Tobacco Road

The air around college basketball buzzes heavy with Wildcat swoon and Louisville “who knew!” this week.

Louisville earned its party crasher role by bravery certainly, but bravado too. Final Four has its Cinderella and we have a Bluegrass State celebration.

Final Four as marketplace?

If the word GREAT could be sold by a street vendor instead of thrown around like Digger Phelps’ predictions, you could still buy one for 12 cents.

Wewonderifanenterprising hustler has recognized the tee-shirt potential of: “No Tobacco Road Team? ... u gotta be kiddin’ me!”

On the other hand, if you owned copyrights to phrase Dribble Drive this week, you could sell it for enough cash to buy top-grade gas to drive your eight-cylinder car free for a year, plus a tune-up and new windshield wipers.

All these novelties and Big Dance in Big Easy. It will be Bigger Fun for Kentuckians than ever because ...

- Four teams are in New Orleans, none named Dookie or Tar Heel.
- Opie Taylor-voiced Roy Williams will glad-hand with Jayhawkers and accept his familiar condolences; Mike Krzyzewski will be recruiting. Leaves all the clever answers to questions for Bill Self, Thad Matta and two of the game’s best spinners of all time, who in a general election year, represent a Blue and Red State.

Geography this Final Four week? Take out map USA and trace college basketball traditional Bermuda Triangle. Ready? From the top, Columbus, Ohio, turn left, go past St. Louis to Lawrence, Kansas. Got that? Next, draw a line from Lawrence to Whitesburg, Kentucky. Not Lexington, not Louisville, but Whitesburg.

Line from Lawrence to Whitesburg just about covers it, right?

College basketball’s Bermuda Triangle belongs to us. By half anyway.

Next, the mini-drama.

John Calipari and Rick Pitino do not exchange Christmas cards. Each shows up in New Orleans with 11 coaching wins each against the other. Both will be quizzed about one-and-done and all will watch to see who grows testy first. Meanwhile, a flammable headline or two that will sell out the racks.

Talking head experts say the Final Four field features three good teams and one great one. In this section of Bermuda Triangle, fans already know which is which and will watch carefully what Kentucky’s governor wears in New Orleans and which side of the arena he posits himself.

Personality and politics aside, the teams ...

Kansas and Ohio State are typical corn bread & beans Final Fourists. Big, tough and physical inside, quick and splashy outside. One team or the other, on its biggest day of any year, will shoot 20 per cent, cry at post-game podium and go home. On Monday, CBS will align its mind-numbing blizzard of commercials and Saturday’s survivor will face, if form holds, a Kentucky team Kansas or Ohio State will approach with pay-back in mind.

Louisville. Fans and CBS love a Cinderella even if it’s two-time NCAA title holder Louisville. Bonus, the network boys and girls get college hoops’ premier quote man in front of a camera, Rick Pitino. The very best.

Pitino’s team is personification of its coach. A feisty collection of mostly shootists which the coach implores “... don’t just be happy to be here.”

Context of how far Cinderella has come for this slipper is important. Consider an answer to this question: Will the Cardinal fan please stand up who believed Louisville would be in the Final Four following events of February 29?

Answer: Nobody. The Cards laid an egg in Yum Center when South Florida held them to 51 points in 58-51 game. UofL lost three of its last four regular season games and fans were howling for Pitino’s head. This week, the conversation includes, ‘Why isn’t our coach in the Hall of Fame?’

Nice team, Louisville. Frenzied style, blue collar courage, pistol-pete willingness to shoot, and no surrender.

Then there’s Kentucky.

To say John Calipari team has evolved into a juggernaut is like saying the Titanic was a boat.

Baylor coach Scott Drew spoke for the majority after his team was drummed into submission: “Was that team as good as I expected? Kentucky was actually better than I thought.”

Better ... and better ... and better.

Kentucky is playing at a level so magnificent, sports writers may be at the brink of exhausting their store of adjectives, verbs and newly minted nouns. Nah.

Consider the analysis of Anthony Davis

“It’s kind of hard to play us,” he said.

After two exhibitions and 40 games, straightforward enough, don’t you think?

This Kentucky team is a team stunning by its intelligence, efficiency, unselfishness and focus on mission all driven by man in the blue suit.

For more than four decades, I’ve witnessed and written about basketball teams in the Bluegrass State including five of Kentucky’s seven national championship teams. None rises to the level of this one in all phases.

Personally, I avoid the word great, yet for a college basketball team, this is one.

Louisville versus Kentucky? The Cardinals grew and grew had a nice run, but Kentucky plays Monday night.

Cautionary postscript. Before the Big Finale in the Big Easy this weekend, we ought remember college hoopsl has had magnificent teams before, odds-on favorites called juggernaut and unbeatable. Among them, Nevada Las Vegas (1991), Georgetown (1985), Houston (1983) and Indiana (1975). I leave it to you to guess what happened to all of them.

For today, for this weekend, Columbus Ohio to Lawrence, Kansas to Whitesburg, Kentucky, embrace the precious present of basketball’s Bermuda Triangle.

And so it goes.

Sheriff's Dept. announces new Scam Alerts

The Bracken County Sheriff's Office is asking that citizens be aware of a job scam by Tri-State Asphalt Sealcoating out of Cincinnati, OH. Employees from this company will come around and ask to apply left over blacktop to your driveway for the costs of sealing the asphalt. The company will then apply the tack for the asphalt and ask for payment for the sealing and advise that they will return in a couple of days with the asphalt and never return. The home owner is out the cost for the sealer with no new asphalt. Employees are driving nice pickup trucks when soliciting the jobs. Anyone with any information on these subjects or sees them in the County are asked to call the Sheriff's Office immediately at 606-735-3233 or Sheriff Niemeier at 859-912-2524. Attempting to obtain license plate numbers off of the vehicles being used by the employees would be helpful. Phone calls to the company get a recorded message from October 2011.

There is a scam from Capital Direct Lottery Sweepstakes that sends you a check for several thousand dollars stating that you have won $250,000.00 and asks you to complete a form and mail it in and to cash the check to pay the taxes on the winnings. The phone numbers listed are for a London, England location and it lists Global Offices in several foreign countries. Do not respond to this request for information as it is an attempt to get additional information from you and to scam you out of money.

If it looks too good to be true it usually is, the money that is sent back usually goes to a foreign country. The check will later come back as not being a good check and the person that cashed it is left being responsible for the total amount of the check with the Bank. There are several variations of these scams that occur. Do not take advantage of the quick cash promise as it will come back to burn you. Anytime someone offers to give you money and for you to send money back, or if they ask you to send them money to win a big prize, BEWARE. These are all scams to get your money and for you to set yourself up to be a victim.

Also this past week Sheriff Niemeier received an email stating that he had won the Powerball Lottery and asking him to respond to the email. If you receive emails like this do not respond to them as they are solicitations to get additional information from you and some links have programs in them that are able to attack your computer and get valuable information off of it and send out messages to all those in your email list. This email originated out of the United Kingdom.

If you have any questions or need additional information on a possible scam contact the Sheriff's Office.

Bracken County Judicial Center taking shape and on schedule

The new Bracken County Judicial Center is taking shape daily as the unseasonably warm weather has kept the project on schedule and at times a head of schedule. The massive structure has begun to show its "bones" as with each passing day new materials are added. With each structural addition, the layout of the building begins to take shape and what was once a flat image of building plans on paper is now becoming quite the visual reality. While still too far away to say for sure, if the weather continues as it has, Circuit Clerk Kathy Free and her staff could be moving in by late January 2013.

Bracken County Cancer Support Group elects officers

The newly organized Bracken County Cancer Support Group met March 20 at the Brookville Christian Church. The 14 interested members present were welcomed by President Karin Poe. Other officers, elected at the last meeting, are Vice President Cary Carl, Secretary Charlotte Galloway, Treasurer Marilyn Heiert, Outreach Chairman Barbara Ware, Bookkeeper Janice Hiles, Reporter Laural Jane Gray, Technology Chairman Ron Moser, and Photographer Elizabeth Ann King.

It was reported that in March they assisted 9 Bracken County residents with gas cards. This will help them with their transportation to and from treatments. The Shoot for a Cure sponsored by Bracken County FBLA was a big success. They discussed some money raising projects and outreach to other clients. If any Bracken Co. resident needs assistance they can contact any officer or member. A treatment plan and a pathology report are needed before assistance can be provided. Donations are welcomed and anyone wanting to be part of the group is encouraged to attend our next meeting which will be June 19 at 6:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the Brooksville Christian Church. Their address is PO Box 417, Brooksville, KY 41004. They also hope to have an email address and a web page in the near future. Stay tuned!
